April 29, 2010 Annual General Meeting

Respectfully submitted by Lynn van Deursen

Theatre volunteer and outgoing Langham secretary

We've had another full year of amazing entertainment at the Langham.

Here's a snap shot of what it all looked like:

Saturday, October 17, 2009 ~ Artists in Action Annual Gala @ 7pm

For our 3rd year in a row we watched artists create masterpieces before our very eyes, sipped wine, nibbled on delectable snacks, listened to different musicians on each floor of the Langham & waltzed the night away in the main gallery. This event was well attended and was a great way to kick off the season.

Special thanks to Sunnyside Naturals who act as our main ticket outlet throughout the year. Joining Sunnyside in the second half of our season was Willow Home Gallery; so now we are blessed with two ticket outlets, one on each side of the street! Not bad for a town with a downtown core that is only one block long!

Saturday, October 24th @ 8 pm ~ Jesse Peters Trio

This event was not well attended and we lost money on it. Perhaps there was just too much going on in town that weekend.

Friday, November 13th @ 8 pm ~ Alex Cuba

Almost a full house came out to enjoy this Juno Award winning artist.

Friday, November 27th @ 8 pm ~ The Matinee

A small but appreciative crowd came out to dance the night away to this lively Vancouver band.

Thursday, February 18th @ 7 pm ~ David Francey

A smaller house than we expected, but a very enjoyable show just the same.

Friday, March 5th @ 8:30 pm ~ Gary Comeau & the VooDoo Allstars

LEGION DANCE ~ CANCELLED ~

Sunday March 21, 2010 ~ IVAN COYOTE @ 4 pm

story telling at its best ~ a well attended event which has inspired us to pursue more spoken work events for next year.

Saturday, March 27th @ 8 pm ~ John Mann from Spirit of the West

A very small but appreciative audience enjoyed John's intimate acoustic performance by candle light in honor of earth hour. Perhaps more people would have come out if the movie night had not been the night before.

Friday, April 16th @ 8 pm ~ Delhi 2 Dublin

An amazing show ~ sold out ~ loud ~ unique ~ energizing ~ and they had everyone up dancing by the end of the show!

Saturday, May 1st @ 8 pm ~ Michael Guthrie

One of the founders of the Langham Cultural Centre involved in saving the building from ruin in the 1970's ~ plus a wine & cheese before the show to celebrate 35+ years since the Langham first opened its doors as a cultural centre.

Friday, May 7th & Saturday, May 8th @ 8 pm ~ The Wedding Pool

A hilarious look at why some people marry, and why others don't, and if willing to take a dare, why some might ~ starring Lucas Myers, Brahm Taylor, Jocelyn Carver & Lindsay Clague.

On top of our many scheduled guest artists this past year we've had some very successful rentals ~ it seems to be all about the advertising, the audience; and getting enough bums in the seats to pay for the show.

We had a wonderful evening in February 2010 with 7 local artist sharing the stage. The evening was well attended and has inspired us to offer more local talent throughout the year. We are blessed to have many very capable musicians living in our valley and we want to help them share their talents close to home (plus we won't have to pay them to travel here, or find them a place to stay!) Sounds like a win / win to us!

It's been quite a challenge in this small town to compete with the other venues that bring in live musicians for our entertainment pleasure. It's with this in mind that Marianne Johnston and I are going to bring in fewer artists next year. We will do our best to keep ticket prices affordable and the variety of performers enticing. "Less is more" as they say, and since we have no idea as to whether or not we will receive any funding to assist us next year, we'll need to keep our guest line up manageable.

Well, that's quick look at our past season. Thanks for joining us; and we look forward to sharing more wonderful artistic experiences with you in the months and years to come.
